

Mr. David Ferland

Lawyer

Professional career

Associé

Mr. David Ferland practices mainly in the fields of Administrative and Municipal Law, Litigation and Dispute Resolution and Real Estate Law.

He practices in civil and commercial litigation, more specially in the areas of Civil Liability (contractual and extra-contractual or tort, call for tenders, intellectual property, sale and lease, securities ) and Administrative Law. He developed a particular expertise in civil procedure. He collaborated with Me Louise Jacques at the writing of the work entitled "Les recours hypothécaire", 1st edition, published in 2000 by Les Éditions Yvon Blais. He is author of many articles published in the Journal l'Équipe published by Camping Quebec Association, and co-author of the work entitled "Précis de procédure civile du Québec", 5th edition, volume 2, "Titre II : l'arbitrage", published in 2015 by Les Éditions Yvon Blais. He was also lecturer as part of the Code of civil procedure's Reform.

Significant mandates

- Litigation known as residential's development called "Les Constellations", in Levis;
- Litigation known as residential's development called "Woodfiled", in Sillery;
- Litigation known as "The Pyrite", in Trois-Rivières;
- Litigation in matter of intellectual property in the domain of university teaching, in Quebec;

Implications

Member of the Training's Comity of the Association "Jeune Barreau de Québec" (2007-2009);

Member of the Training's Comity of the Association "Barreau de Québec" (2009-2014), from which he as been President (2011-2014).

Contact

☎ 418-640-4442
✉ david.ferland@steinmonast.ca

Language(s)

French and English

Offered services

- Administrative and civil law
- Administrative and municipal law
- Civil Liability
- Commercial Leases
- Commercial Litigation
- Litigation and dispute resolution
- Real estate law

Formation

LL.B., Droit, 1998,
Université Laval

Called to the bar

1999