

Lawyer

Professional career

Associé

She counsels and represents businesses, persons and real estate societies, municipalities et school boards in divers matters including litigation. She also works in condominium cases and also in real estate assesment, municipal taxation and expropriation cases. She represents financial institutions in the exercise of their hypothecary rights, for the protection of their security interests or in bankruptcy and insolvency matters. Ms. Dionne also gives conferences and writes various articles, mainly concerning real estate law.

Implications

She is involved with the Urban Development Institute of Quebec and its regional council of Quebec City and also with the Réseau de gestionnaires et de copropriétaires du Québec. She is also a member of the Disciplinary Council of the Quebec Bar and of Laval University. She was also a member and president of the Administrative Justice Committee.

Contact

☎ 418-640-4438
✉ karine.dionne@steinmonast.ca

Language(s)

French and English

Offered services

- Administrative and municipal law
- Bankruptcy, insolvency and restructuring
- Construction Law
- Expropriation
- Financial Institutions and Financial Services
- Litigation and dispute resolution
- Municipal and Education Law
- Mutual Funds and Investment Funds
- Product Liability
- Real estate law

Formation

LL.B., Law, 1995, Laval University

Called to the bar

1996