

Mr. Pascal LePage

Lawyer

Professional career

Partner and Trade-Marks Agent.

Mr. LePage practices mainly in the fields of business law and intellectual property law.

As such, he practices corporate and commercial law, particularly drafting and negotiating agreements related to purchase and sale of businesses, corporate and tax reorganizations for corporations and non-profit organizations, as well as funding. Mr. LePage also practices in the area of intellectual property law. He is a registered trademark agent with the Canadian Intellectual Property Office (CIPO) and in charge of the office's Intellectual Property practice group. Mr. LePage manages trademarks portfolios for his clients. He advises his clients on intellectual property registration in Canada and abroad through a vast network of contacts and correspondent attorneys, as well as drafting and negotiating various types of agreements related to intellectual property. He has developed a strong experience in the confusion of trademarks and business names and represents his clients in connection with intellectual property litigation before the administrative bodies of the CIPO Opposition Board and the Registraire des entreprises du Québec, as well as various arbitration institutions with respect to domain names disputes.

Mr. LePage is also the author of a number of specialized articles in the field of trademarks and business names confusion.

Implications

Member of the Canadian Bar Association

Member of the Intellectual Property Institute of Canada

Registered Trade-Marks Agent (OPIC)

Member of the American Intellectual Property Law Association

Contact

☎ 418-640-4404
✉ pascal.lepage@s
teinmonast.ca

Language(s)

French and English

Offered services

- Business Transfer
- Corporate and commercial law
- Corporate Reorganization
- Financing
- Intellectual property
- Private Financing
- Trade-Marks
- Transactional
- Venture capital

Formation

LL.B., Law, 2004, Laval University

Called to the bar

2005