Professional career

Before joining the firm, Ms Pilote-Coulombe interned and worked as a judicial clerk for the Court of appeal of Québec, which enabled her to acquire complementary skills in several areas of law. This experience asked her to develop tailored solutions to complex legal problems.

Within the cours of her practice, Ms Pilote-Coulombe is called upon to plead before different courts. She is also motivated to carry on her profession with efficiency, probity and to find the appropriate solution to her clients.

Implications

During her studies, Ms Pilote-Coulombe completed a certificate in philosophy and volunteered at the Bureau d'information juridique, a non-profit organization providing free legal information.
