

Corinne Goulet

Lawyer

Professional career

Ms. Corinne Goulet primarily works in the fields of insurance law, civil and professional liability, litigation and dispute resolution, and commercial litigation.

Ms. Goulet joined the firm in the summer of 2023 as a law student, then returned to complete her articling program required by the Quebec Bar. She became a lawyer with the team in 2024.

She stands out for her human approach and professionalism. By meticulously managing the cases she is assigned and leveraging her communication skills, she is able to establish lasting trust-based relationships with her clients. In the execution of her mandates, Ms. Goulet is frequently called upon to represent her clients before various civil courts.

During her university studies, Ms. Goulet was a member of the University of Montreal's Carabins alpine ski team, where she also held the role of captain, and volunteered at the St-Michel legal clinic.
