Professional career

Ms. Aouididi obtained her Master's degree in Corporate Law and Business Management in 2014 from the University of Carthage in Tunisia.

In 2016, she began her career as a lawyer in corporate and transportation law, working for three years in some of the largest corporate law firms in her region. In 2019, she furthered her education by earning a Master's degree in law, with a focus on international law and international politics from the University of Quebec in Montreal.

In 2024, after completing her articling program with Stein Monast's transportation law department, Ms. Aouididi obtained her certificate as a paralegal from CDI College of Montréal. She then joined our firm as a paralegal.

Throughout her career, Ms. Aouididi has had the opportunity to collaborate with lawyers and arbitrators in corporate law and international arbitration. In Quebec, she also gained valuable experience by working for three years in the banking sector as a regulatory compliance officer.
