

Catherine Boilard

Lawyer

Professional career

Ms. Catherine Boilard practices primarily in civil and commercial litigation, as well as in bankruptcy, insolvency and restructuring.

Before joining the firm, Ms. Boilard worked for nearly eight years in administrative and civil litigation, as well as in criminal matters, as a prosecutor for the Litigation Department of the Autorité des marchés financiers (AMF).

She regularly pleads before various courts, as well as before the Financial Markets Administrative Tribunal, in litigation related to the Securities Act and the Act respecting the distribution of financial products and services.

She has developed an expertise in matters involving the appointment of a provisional administrator under the Act respecting the regulation of the financial sector.

Ms. Boilard holds a Master's degree in business administration with a specialization in financial planning and has gained a thorough understanding of the financial services industry.

As a litigation lawyer, her practice includes various fields of law, including bankruptcy and insolvency law, civil liability, contractual disputes, construction law, and professional liability. She also handles extraordinary remedies, including injunctions, safeguard orders, and seizures orders.

Contact

Phone : 418 640-4417

catherine.boilard@steinmonast.ca

Offered services

- Administrative and civil law
- Banking Law
- Bankruptcy, insolvency and restructuring
- Civil and professional liability insurance
- Commercial Litigation
- Debt Recovery and Realization of Security
- Directors' and Officers' Liability
- Financial Institutions and Financial Services
- Injunctions
- Litigation and dispute resolution
- Professional Liability
- Securities
- Shareholders' Remedies

Education

• LL. B., Law, 2014, Université Laval • MBA - Financial Planning, 2021, Université Laval

Called to the bar

2015