

Alexandre Gauthier

Lawyer

Professional career

Alexandre Gauthier is a transportation lawyer at Stein Monast.

Admitted to the Quebec Bar in 2020, he focuses his practice on all legal matters related to road transportation. He advises and represents owners, operators, and drivers of heavy vehicles in both regulatory compliance and litigation. his work includes permit applications, obligations imposed on transportation stakeholders, and criminal offenses in Quebec and beyond, appearing before both criminal and civil courts.

Deeply engaged in the transportation industry, Mr. Gauthier regularly contributes legal columns to specialized journals. This involvement enables him to simplify complex technical issues and guide transporters in applying the rules that govern their activities. He is also an active member of the Quebec Trucking Association, where he stays in touch with industry trends, needs, and concerns.

Mr. Gauthier obtained his bachelor's degree in law from Université Laval in 2020, graduating on the honor roll. Dedicated, diligent, and client-focused, he tailors strategies to each client's unique circumstances. He is recognized for his thoroughness, practical approach, and commitment to delivering effective solutions.

An outdoor enthusiast, he enjoys river canoeing, canoe camping, hunting, and fishing, activities that nurture both his personal balance and his sense of perseverance.

Implications

Director, Club Trafic Québec since 2022

Member of the Board of Directors of the Regroupement des Professionnels en Sécurité Routière du Québec

Contact

Phone : 418-476-3624

alexandre.gauthier@steinmonast.ca

Offered services

- Administrative and civil law
- Administrative and municipal law
- Civil Liability
- Commercial Litigation
- Penal Law
- Transportation law

Education

LL.B., Law, 2019, Université Laval

Called to the bar

2020