Marylou Tremblay

Lawyer

Professional career

Me Marylou Tremblay practices primarily in civil and commercial litigation.

As a litigator, she handles a broad range of matters, including civil liability, contractual disputes, professional liability, and disciplinary law.

She completed her law degree as well as her Master of Business Administration at the Université de Sherbrooke. During her studies, Me Tremblay completed two co-op placements in law and one co-op placement in digital marketing at a major corporation. She also served as a teaching assistant for Devenir juriste, a new course offered by the Faculty of Law of the Université de Sherbrooke, designed to help students better prepare for their future legal careers and guide their reflections on the role of legal professionals in society.

Me Tremblay received le prix d'excellence des Éditions Yvon Blais en rédaction juridique de 1re année, which recognizes students who produced the best legal essay based on academic merit.

Me Tremblay joined the firm as a lawyer in 2025, after completing her professional internship at the École du Barreau.
