Professional career

Ms. Marilyn Maltais is a paralegal in the Transportation law department.

Following her academic training in 2007, she completed an internship with lawyers specializing in criminal law and continued her career with them for nearly 10 years, during which she gained extensive experience.

After several years as a legal technician in the public sector, she continued her professional career at a law firm, where she developed expertise in civil and municipal law while further strengthening her skills in preparing cases before the Court of Appeal and the Supreme Court of Canada.
