

Sophie Blanchet

Lawyer

Professional career

Ms. Blanchet practises primarily in civil and commercial litigation, particularly in the areas of civil and professional liability, as well as contractual disputes and shareholder disputes.

She also acts in extraordinary legal proceedings such as injunctions and safeguard orders, as well as in debt collection and security interest enforcement proceedings.

Ms. Blanchet has a strong interest in civil procedure, which is reflected in her rigorous management of deadlines and her meticulous analysis of the options available to clients.
