

Marika Veilleux

Lawyer

Professional career

Ms. Marika Veilleux practices mainly in civil and commercial litigation, professional liability and disciplinary law.

Ms. Veilleux joined the firm as a lawyer in 2026, after completing her professional internship at the École du Barreau.

In her practice, she advises and represents a diverse clientele with rigour and integrity. She is particularly appreciated for her attention to detail and professionalism.

During her studies, Ms. Veilleux volunteered for the Bureau d'information juridique at Université Laval. In recognition of her sustained efforts, she was awarded an excellence scholarship granted to the student with the highest average in two labour law courses.

Implications

Volunteer for Laval University's Bureau d'information juridique (BIJ) – fall 2023 and winter 2024

Contact

Phone : 418-210-3210

marika.veilleux@steinmonast.ca

Offered services

- Civil and professional liability insurance
- Civil Liability
- Commercial Litigation
- Disciplinary law
- Latent Defects
- Litigation and dispute resolution
- Professional Liability

Education

- Certificate in criminology, 2021, Université Laval • LL. B., Law, 2024, Université Laval

Called to the bar

2026