

Jennifer Dumetz

Lawyer

Professional career

Partner

Ms. Jennifer Dumetz is the head of the immigration law department.

Native of France, where she studied law until obtaining a master's degree mainly in Business Law, Ms. Dumetz completed her studies in Quebec, including the Bar. Since being admitted to the Bar, Ms. Dumetz practises in the areas of Immigration law and she has practised business law during more than nine years.

She accompanies many employers in their international mobility process and works with them to ensure their compliance with the temporary foreign worker program and the international mobility program.

She assists our clients in various immigration procedures in Canada, both temporary (work permit, study permit, visitor visa, international experience Canada, etc.) and permanent (skilled workers, investors, entrepreneurs, self-employed, family reunification and sponsorship) concerning individuals or companies.

Implications

Director of Théâtre du Gros Mécano (Les productions pour enfants de Québec) (2017-2018)

Member of the committee about work-personal life conciliation of the Barreau de Québec (2015-2018)

Secretary and director of the French Chamber of Commerce in Canada, Quebec section (2011-2013)

Conference on study permits and post-education requests for permanent residence (October 2012)

Contact

Phone : 418-640-4450

jennifer.dumetz@steinmonast
.ca

Offered services

- Immigration Law

Education

LL.B., Law, 2007, Université Laval; LL.M., International and Transnational Laws, 2006, Université Laval; LL.M., Business Law, 2004, Université de Lille 2 (France); LL.B., Law, 2003, Université de Lille 2 (France)

Called to the bar

2008