

Anaïs Welsh

Lawyer

Professional career

Ms. Anaïs Welsh practises in the field of corporate and commercial law, particularly on mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructuring and private financing.

She also acts as counsel in the implementation and completion of transactions in the context of bankruptcy, insolvency, and restructuring proceedings.

She completed her law degree at Université Laval in 2019 and joined the firm as a lawyer during the summer of 2020 after having completed her articling period. She distinguishes herself in particular by her rigor and her active listening. Concerned about achieving the client's real objectives, she also has a creative approach to find solutions.

Honours

Ms. Welsh is recognized by the prestigious The Best Lawyers – Ones to Watch in Canada in the 2025 and 2026 for her practice in Corporate Law and in Mergers & Acquisitions Law.

Implications

During her law studies, Ms. Welsh completed a trade mission to Colombia to represent a Quebec company in its international development. This experience has given her the opportunity to develop her negotiation skills in a Spanish-speaking context. She was also involved in various organizations during her studies, in particular as a Vice President – Finance in the organization of a Seminar held by the Quebec Federation of Law Students.
