

Natalia Koroleva

Lawyer

Professional career

Natalia Koroleva practices mainly in the field of immigration law.

Natalia Koroleva joined the firm after completing her articling with us in 2021. She practices immigration law, aiding businesses and individuals in their temporary and permanent immigration procedures in Canada.

Natalia Koroleva has studied law both in Ukraine and in Switzerland and obtained a doctorate in constitutional law. She then completed her studies in Quebec before becoming a member of the Quebec Bar in 2021.

During her professional career, Natalia Koroleva has worked as a professor of Swiss constitutional law, Russian administrative law, contract law and completed an internship at the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE).

Implications

Member of the Montcalm neighborhood council in Quebec (2016 – 2018)

Contact

Phone : +1-418-476-3626

natalia.koroleva@steinmonast
.ca

Offered services

- Immigration Law

Education

(2017 – 2019) Laval University, Quebec, Canada, Professional Order Integration Program.
(2018) Quebec Institute of Financial Planning, Montreal, Canada, Financial Planner Diploma. (2013 – 2014) University of Geneva, Switzerland, Master's degree in Economic law. (2012 – 2013) University of Geneva, Switzerland, Certificate in Transnational Law. (2011 – 2013) University of Geneva, Switzerland, Master's degree in International and European law. (2001 – 2005) Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv, Ukraine, Doctor of Law (Ph.D.). (1996 – 2001) V.I. Vernadskiy Tavrida National University, Simferopol, Ukraine, Bachelor's / Specialist in law.

Called to the bar

2021