

Joane Wansi

Administration

Professional career

Joane Wansi joined the firm in 2020 as a Legal Assistant in Transportation Law. She is now a Paralegal in Transportation Law since November 2021.

Ms. Wansi is involved in the management of criminal offences related to the operation of heavy vehicles under federal and provincial laws and regulations.

Between her bachelor's degree in Togo and her master's degree in business law, she spent almost a year working as an intern in the private business law field in business law firms in Togo, conducting legal research and studying legal cases (civil law, commercial law, banking law, criminal law and criminal procedure). She also prepared files for hearings and followed up on pleading hearings of lawyers before the courts of merit, summary proceedings and appeals.

Joane Wansi loves challenges and the experiences she has accumulated since her university studies in Togo and Canada, have endowed her with a great rigor, an open mind and interpersonal skills that she demonstrates on a daily basis in the attributions that are entrusted to her.
